Results of the International Postal Union.

International Postal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Captain Brooks, Superintendent of Foreign Mails, has just returned from Vienna where he was in attendance as a delegate to the International Postal Convention. The principal event of the Vienna convention was the admission of Australian countries. They agreed to come in October 1st, of this year, provided international postal rates are not reduced. They claimed they could not stand a reduction. The present rate between this country and Australia is 12c from that country. This country will at once reduce the rate to 6c. Australia may keep its rate at 10c, but likely it will reduce it at once to 6c. Another matter of interest is that of the change in the size of sample packages of merchandise which may be sent through the mails to and from countries in the Union. The new treaty increases the limit to 12 by 8 by 4 inches, almost double the old limit. Yet another measure of public interest is included in the new treaty; that is the clause requiring each country in the union, after July 1st, 1892, to issue double postal cards for foreign service; double postal cards for foreign use will cost 4c. The writer indites his message on these cards, puts the address on the same card and mails the combination. When addressed receives it he tears off the card not written on, writes his reply on it, address and mails it. Any country in the union is required to forward the card, and the country in which the double combination card is bought receives free postage both ways. The new treaty which is to go into effect July 1st, 1892, was concluded and signed July 4th. Washington is made the next place of meeting.

Ruined Crops of Russia.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 10.—The grave situation created by the failure of crops in Russia is causing the greatest apprehension in all circles. The Gazetka declares the local administration will be unable to make provision for the inhabitants of the distressed provinces if speculators are allowed to export corn, or if the artificial rise in the price of corn is not checked. The paper demands that the government immediately place a heavy duty on the export of rye. The Financial Messenger declares it will be almost impossible for Russia to export corn this year.

Britain Bewails.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The St. James Gazette this morning prints the following: "Judging from the returns issued by the Board of Trade, it looks as though we have already reached the end of good times. The great decline in exports from Britain is undoubtedly due to the operation of the McKinley law in the United States. We have been told that the act would eventually prove a misfortune to the United States, but its immediate object was to hit foreign manufacturers, especially those of Great Britain, and it is plainly evident those objects were attained."

Mexican Economy.

By Associated Press.
CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 10.—There is truth in the report of the resignation of Minister Fonmiao. The Spanish trans-Atlantic steamship line has been trying to obtain a renewal of the subsidy by which the line benefited, but President Diaz will not receive from his plan for economy upon which he entered, and considered that the subsidies to railways and steamship companies is part in Mexico.

Fire and Loss of Life.

By Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Aug. 10.—At 3:30 this morning the patrolman on Second street saw flames issuing from Conway's lodging house. Before the engine arrived the building was in a mass of flames. All but one, known to have been in the house have been accounted for. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Conway's brother, a man about 60 years of age, was taken out through a second-story window, suffocated to death; his face was burned almost beyond recognition. Just across from him on the east side of the burning building, was a negro named Washington, a barber; his hands and arms were terribly burned, the skin being entirely burned off. He will not recover. A man named Gann jumped from the third story and was injured internally. He can hardly recover. J. H. Dwyer, another inmate, jumped from a third story window and received a broken arm. Wm. Clifford jumped from the third floor and escaped unhurt. Frank Brown threw his trunk from the second story and jumped after it. The trunk was smashed to pieces but Brown was unhurt. The building was almost entirely gutted. Had there been a west wind the entire block would have gone. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

Italians Injured.

By Associated Press.
NEW HAVEN, Aug. 10.—Nine Italian laborers were seriously injured, two fatally, in a railroad collision near Cranford, on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad this morning. Those injured were of a party of fifty Italians in a caboose at the end of a gravel train. This car was run into by the engine of the freight train. The engine ran through the car before it stopped. The engineer and fireman jumped and saved their lives, only to almost lose them soon after at the hands of the wrathful foreigners who gathered about them. The fireman was knocked down by a piece of coal, but escaped. The engineer fought his way through the crowd of Italians with a bar of iron and sought safety in the ticket office.

MALIGNANT DIPHTHERIA.

A Family of Six Children Down With it on the Meadows.
An alarming condition of affairs exists at the English Mill, just north-east of town. A family named Fraser have six children down with the disease in a most malignant form, and one of them has died. The sanitary conditions are frightful, and it is feared that the other two children will be taken down with it. There is a case in town, too. The patient contracted the disease in Washoe Valley, and two cases are reported from Franktown. With small-pox at Carson and diphtheria in and around Reno, it behooves every one to be particularly careful and keep their yards and the town generally free from filth.

The Commissioners should take the matter in hand at once and take every precaution to prevent the spread of the loathsome disease.

PYRAMID LAKE.

A Reno Party Visits That Resort and Returns Saturday.
Saturday afternoon (at 3 o'clock) a party consisting of President S. A. Jones and Dr. W. A. Phillips of the University, Judge Webster, W. S. Bender, Red Moore, R. W. Parry and Allen O. Bragg, left Reno for the "Piste water" of Pyramid Lake on a fishing excursion. Sunday was spent in trolling for trout. The party hooked 47 of the finny tribe, divided up as follows: Judge Webster and Messrs. Phillips and Moore, 12 each—36; Bender, 3; Jones, 2; Parry 6 and Bragg the balance.

Blaine May.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—A Washington special says: "A man who talked with Conger, the Ohio member of the National Republican Committee, is authority for the statement that Blaine's health permitting he will be 'in the hands of his friends' when the nominating convention meets in 1892. He says: 'Conger broached the subject to Blaine who seemed rather indisposed to talk about it at all.' Conger dwelt at length upon the steadfastness of Blaine's friends, and recalled numerous instances of their faithful adherence to him under any and all circumstances, and says that his (Blaine's) friends ought to have something to say. The Republicans generally wished to see him President, and victory with any other man as a nominee was uncertain. Blaine showed great feeling when Conger dilated upon the faithful service of his friends and said he had every disposition to serve them and be Republican party, too, and would not decline the nomination in advance. Whether he told Conger directly he would take the nomination, I do not know, but this much I can say, namely, that Conger says Blaine will accept it and so believes all of Blaine's friends."

Export Restrictions.

By Cable and Associated Press.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10.—It is officially announced that the Government has not yet contemplated issuing a decree totally prohibiting the export of grain from Russia, but a partial failure of crops demands provision be made for people living in distressed provinces, and consequently the export of grain from those provinces will be restricted by the authorities.

Testing the Law.

By Associated Press.
OMAHA, Aug. 10.—Guy C. Barton, President of the Omaha and Grant smelter, was arrested to-day, charged with violating the eight-hour law. He is to be tried to-morrow morning and will receive a jail sentence. There he will apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the law is unconstitutional. This will be made a test case.

Difference of Opinion.

By Associated Press.
ATLANTA (Ga.), Aug. 10.—The Journal this afternoon prints a story to the effect that J. O. Wynne, business agent of the Georgia State Alliance Exchange, is over $30,000 short in his accounts. Wynne is under $50,000 bonds. Exchange officials assert the shortage is a defalcation. Wynne says the shortage is due to a clerical error and loss of vouchers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Forecast, light rains at Yuma.

Crop Reports.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The August returns of the Department of Agriculture makes the condition of corn 90.8; spring wheat, 95; spring rye, 89.6; oats, 80.5; barley, 83.8; buckwheat, 98.3; potatoes, 96.5; tobacco, 88.5; hay, 90.9. Corn has fallen off two points during the month, the decline being almost entirely in the States of the Ohio valley and the northwest. The decline was due to dry weather, approaching drought in portions of Indiana and Illinois and low temperature in all sections of the corn surplus districts. There was sufficient rainfall in Kansas and Nebraska, with some local excesses, and the month was fairly favorable, notwithstanding the low temperature. East of the Alleghany mountains and in the south conditions were favorable and the State averages advanced. It continues late in most sections, the result of a poor start and absence of seed forcing methods during July, and unless August should prove unusually favorable and the season a long one, there is grave danger the crop may not mature properly.

While the general average is reasonably high, correspondents qualify emphasizing the necessity for a favorable season from this date on. In the surplus States the averages are: Ohio 93, Indiana 88, Illinois 83, Iowa 90, Missouri 87, Kansas 88, Nebraska 86. It should be noted but one of the surplus States returns an average more than an average for the country. Wheat returns relate to spring wheat only, the average for the whole breadth advancing somewhat during the month. Improvement is general except in Washington, where hot winds injured the prospect in some districts, and State returns outside this State and Wisconsin closely approach the standard for comparison. The principal States are, Wisconsin, 78; Minnesota, 98; Iowa, 95; Nebraska, 97; North Dakota, 90; South Dakota, 88; Washington, 90. Oats improved two points during the month and the figures of the condition indicate a medium yield per acre. The blight which ruined the crop last year was feared again, but at the date of the July report, it appeared in but a few isolated localities. The weather at the close of the growing season and during the harvest generally, was favorable, and the late growth sufficient to largely offset the poor start and deficient stand.

The cool weather which retarded the corn growth in the upper Mississippi Valley, was favorable to this cereal, materially advancing the state averages. The averages in the States of larger production are: New York, 92; Pennsylvania, 91; Ohio, 96; Michigan, 86; Illinois, 86; Wisconsin, 89; Minnesota, 94; Iowa, 98; Kansas, 90; Nebraska, 96.

Barley shows an improvement and promises a large crop in most districts. The heavy production in California returns the condition at 100, or practically perfect. In New York and Wisconsin, however, the prospect is less favorable. The first return for buckwheat is the highest for eight years past, with a slight increase in the average.

The condition of potatoes returned remarkably high, scoring a gain of a point over last month. In 15 years previous to the recent season, August shows a condition higher than July but once. Should the present prospect be continued, the crop will be one of unusual proportion.

City and Country.

The following suggestive article on a most important subject was sent to the Argonaut last week by a busy citizen of Nevada and the Editor paid it the compliment of using it among his own contributions:

"With the raw materials of an empire at her back, the city of San Francisco seems lacking in some of the elements necessary to enable her to rise to her opportunities. Modern history shows no community with such splendid possibilities, and none which so completely fails to make use of them. Unsurpassed for location, unsurpassed in resources, and unrivaled in general conditions, revolutions in commercial methods and modes of travel which have side-tracked other cities have served only to strengthen her.

"But, notwithstanding all this, there is no disguising the fact that San Francisco is being shorn of a large part of the territory naturally tributary to her, and her more active spirits are asking what can be done to enable her to maintain her position. It is a comparatively easy thing to divert trade considerably; and when we add what might have been developed to what might have been retained, it is not hard to see what a loss has been sustained.

"If the Central Pacific people had built only to Reno instead of to Ogden, the trade of Utah would have been absolutely cut off from San Francisco. On the other hand, if they had built to Cheyenne, it would have put her in a position to control the Utah business and divide that of Wyoming.

"The history of Chicago is a fine illustration of this principle. She was much behind Milwaukee in the start, and her swamp-flats made a poor comparison with the fine location of the Cream City. But the genius of commerce presided over her from her birth, and her lines have spread, like a cobweb of steel, over all the country round about. No part of the West was too remote for her daring spirits. If a corner of Iowa or Wisconsin showed the capacity to become a producer, it got a bank and a railroad, and the officers were agents for Chicago, undisguised. From a mosquito-bred, that city has grown to be the second on the continent, and her neighbors have been changed from rivals to aids. Before the century closes, she will be the greatest iron-manufacturing center, and, if she does not quit, she will, before the year 2000, be the greatest city on earth.

"How does the policy of our leading city compare with that of Chicago? Sitting at the gate of what will be the garden of the world, what has she done to compel destiny? How proud it would make us to answer that San Francisco has stood like a young giant, scattering prosperity over the broad valleys and grand mountains. That enterprise has been encouraged, industry fostered, development stimulated, and a vast territory tied to her by bands of both steel and of friendship. Unfortunately this is not the attitude assumed by the guardian of the Golden Gate. She has preferred to sit at the western door of the continent, more like a blind beggar, taking what fell into her hand, without making an effort to bring trade or develop wealth. Hardly half a dozen of her citizens have contributed to the building of a system of railroads to open up the country. The most parsimonious spirit has been shown toward the isthmus canal, which would bring her weeks nearer to the world and add fifty per cent. to the permanent value of every piece of property on the Coast. Her investments in land have been a speculation, and in mines a gamble. A fair example of her breadth of treatment is shown by the run recently made on a bank, because it had aided a worthy enterprise or two in Arizona and Southern California. San Francisco ought to be doing just that thing all over Arizona, Nevada and, of course, California. Any other city in the Union would be.

"California has many citizens of distinguished worth and enterprise and some of them have done much for us, but the fact that a territory containing such wealth and opportunities as Nevada has, and all naturally bound to San Francisco, has only forty-five thousand people, is a strong indictment of that city's business methods. She has killed the goose that laid the golden egg, and will build no more palatial residences, business blocks or cable-roads with Nevada money. True Nevada is somewhat to blame, but that she has so few people is a reflection not upon those who are here, but rather upon those who are not. The depression on the Comstock, at Eureka, and elsewhere, has sent a contingent of thoroughly skilled miners out into the mountains, and for years they have been prospecting for ore, and they have gone as far as it is possible for them to go alone. Many of them have found mines which would pay well to handle if their owners had the means. Some of them are far from any base of supplies, but others lie within easy reach. There is no home capital to build works for reducing the ores, and any paper which published the truth about the way Nevada miners are treated by San Francisco smelters, would probably get a libel suit. A set of sampling works is being put up at Carlin, and Colorado money stands ready to buy all ores that can be delivered there. The railroad rates have been made reasonable and the ore will be sent to Denver for working. In other places Eastern capital is coming in, and its owners seem willing to invest if it will earn interest. No California money to speak of is coming in, except to gamble in stocks.

"Nevada could be made the home of thousands of people, every one of whom would be a regular contributor to San Francisco prosperity, if means were provided for the development of irrigation enterprises, which promise generous returns. This will come, but it will be done by Eastern money, as it has been done in Utah, and, as fast as Nevada can do so, she will cut loose from San Francisco and affiliate more and more with her Eastern neighbors. She has been buying largely there of late, and the only effort her old friend on the west has made to keep her trade was to go to the railroad company and whine about the reduction of rates on freight. She wants Nevada to pay the rate through and back, so as to force her to trade at the bay, and thus far the railroads have concurred to this narrow policy.

"The absence of coal in California and the lack of cheap fuel will retard manufacturing, and San Francisco will have to rely upon the products of the soil for her prosperity. She should have a wistful eye out for opportunities to develop wealth in all this region, and if she finds a man with a dollars worth of mining or other property, she should put another dollar with it and make money for both, instead of trying to get his dollar away from him. North-eastern California and the State of Nevada are the richest parts of the Union still undeveloped, and they may repay the men who open them up. By reaching out, San Francisco can bind them to her beyond all reach of rivals, and, by increasing their wealth, she can multiply her own. Such a system of commerce would be twice blessed, enriching both him that gives and him that takes."

Dropped Dead
The Appeal of Sunday says: About half-past 1 this morning, Arthur Willmott, formerly a printer, walked into Benton's stable, and asking the night man for a drink, dropped dead. He was nearly thirty years old, and had been ailing for the past three days.

From San Antonio.
A. C. HORNUNG, a well known manufacturer of boots and shoes at 220 Nolan St., San Antonio, Texas, will not soon forget his experience with an attack of the cramps which he relates as follows: "I was taken with a violent cramp in the stomach, which I believe would have caused my death, had it not been for the prompt use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose did me no good, but the second followed it up in 30 minutes with a second dose, and before the doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This Remedy shall always be one of the main stays of my family." For sale by J. B. McCullough, Druggist.

Woe to the Conquered.
The Romans cried "Vae Victis!" "Woe to the conquered!" at their triumphs. To-day many of us are being conquered—our place, our rest and daily appetite wrested from us by that invader of the stomach, dyspepsia. Suffer we see for from a hundred sources. Temporary relief we sometimes obtain. But a hearty meal, the simplest indiscretion in diet, and the Protean imp returns with redoubled vigor to torment us. The persistent use of the anti-dyspeptic and regulating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is best calculated to drive into permanent banishment every form of indigestion, temporary or chronic. No less efficacious is it for malaria, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism, kidney and bladder ailments. This remedy of special activity and many uses overcomes them all. It is a safeguard, too, against the effects of temperature apt to revive an attack of "La Grippe."

To the Public.
CABDO MILLS, Texas, June 5, 1891.—From my own personal knowledge, I can recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Cramps in the stomach, also for diarrhoea and flux. It is the best medicine I have seen used, and the best selling, as it always gives satisfaction. A. H. RUSSELL, 30 and 32 cent bottles for sale by J. B. McCullough, Druggist.

Bad Blood.
Impure or vitiated blood is nine times out of ten caused by some form of constipation or indigestion that clogs up the system, when the blood naturally becomes impregnated with the effete matter. The old Sarsaparilla attempt to reach this condition by attacking the blood with the drastic mineral "potash." Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is modern. It goes to the seat of the trouble. It cleanses the liver, kidneys and bowels and invigorates the circulation, and the impurities are quickly carried off through the natural channels.

Charles Lee, at Bealish's Third and Market Sts., S. F., writes: "I took it for vitiated blood, and while on the first bottle became convinced of its merits, for I could feel it was working a change. It cleansed, purified and braced me up generally, and everything is now working full and regular."

AMERICAN DEPOT.

The Freight Point for All Points North to the Oregon Line.

The cut published to-day of the depot of the N.-C.-O. Ry. at Amdeed is from a photograph taken on the spot by the GAZETTE artist, the south end and west side being shown in the picture. It was finished last November, and the extreme length is 168 feet.

The first floor on the south end is occupied by the agent of the N.-C.-O. and Robert Ash, agent for D. W. Earl for offices, while the north end is used as a freight house. In the upper story are six rooms for the use of employees for lodgings. The freight house was well filled with goods destined for Alturas, Susanville, Cedarville, Ft. Bidwell, Lakeview and Paisley, Oregon, and by the extension of the road to Amdeed, it has secured all the freight for that northern region, which formerly was sent via Redding. But as that route is closed in winter by the impassable snow-capped summits of the Sierras, the freight will hereafter come this way. As is well known, this road was built and is owned exclusively by one man, and he is a resident of New York city, and his enterprise points a lesson to our Nevada millionaires, who go abroad for investments, when better opportunities invite them to stay at home.

INDIAN RUN OVER.

By a Freight Train and Dies Two Hours Afterward.

Yesterday morning, after freight train No. 6, west-bound, pulled out about 8:30 o'clock a. m., an Indian was found lying on the track at the water tank. He had been run over by the train and crushed in a horrible manner. The legs had been run over above the knees, one hand was partly cut off and the side of the head crushed. Assistance was rendered, but it was evident that nothing could save him, and he died some two hours afterward. It seems no one saw the accident, and the train had evidently not known of it, as the train pulled out without any halt. The train was covered with Indians, that were presumably going to California to pick up, and he probably belonged to the number.

Mr. Frank Hoffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he could get around. They pronounced his case to be consumption and incurable. He was per suaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs, Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have a cough, lung or chest trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at W. Pinniger's Drugstore.

Remember.

MIGRATING TO ASIA.

and Stories of Serfdom in Among the Slavs.

Large numbers of peasants and laborers of the interior governments apply for permission to settle in Siberia. Some of them hope to find employment in central Asia on the Transiberian railroad; others believe that they can improve their circumstances in the sparsely populated districts of that region. But this migration of the people is viewed with some apprehension by the press. The newspapers see in it a sign of prevailing poverty and of general discontent with existing circumstances. "The one who knows how the Slav loves his place of birth," says a Moscow daily, "how unwillingly he moves even to another village if he can but stay in his own, must be astonished at the desire to move about, which now is manifested among our peasants. The most saddening stories of the time of serfdom are reported from peasants whom their masters have sold into distant governments. Parting from their native villages was to them tantamount to yielding half of their lives. It is impossible to think that the nature of the Russian peasant has changed in these thirty years; that he has grown less domestic, more mobile and enterprising. We are forced to the conclusion, then, that the migration of our people at present is forced by outward circumstances. And what shall it lead to? This is about as much as a censor-ridden paper can allow itself to say."

Prison Statistics.
In 1890 there were 37.88 per cent more convicts than in 1880. This shows that the number of convicts has increased 2.49 per cent faster in a decade than the population. Of the 45,333 convicts in penitentiaries in the United States in 1890, the whites formed 67.53 per cent, and the colored 32.47 per cent. Of the 30,546 white convicts, the native born represented 75.60 per cent, and the foreign born 24.40 per cent, while the place of birth of 69-100ths per cent was unknown. The women formed 9.41 per cent, and the men 90.59 per cent, showing 34.4 times as many male convicts as female.

Flora of Various Regions.
The flora of Europe embraces about 10,000 species. India has about 15,000. The British possessions in North America, though with an area nearly as large as Europe, have only about 5,000. One of the richest floras is that of the Cape of Good Hope and Natal, which figures up about 10,000 species. Australia is also rich in species, about 10,000 being now known.

"German Syrup"
Martinsville, N. J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a Cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." REV. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, N. J. A Safe Jersey, M. E. Conference, April 25, '90. Remedy.
